MUZRAI.

(Nos. 301 to 308.)

SUBJECT No. 301.

A committee to revise muzrai establishment.

Mr. Rangachar, T.-Narsipur Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—Owing to the revision of tasdiks in the muzrai institutions of the State, the allotments in many temples are not in accord with the original intention of the grantor. A special committee may therefore be appointed to enquire into the defects and rectify the tasdik pattis accordingly.

Reply of Government.—Individual cases may be brought to the notice of the Muzrai Superintendent.

SUBJECT No. 302.

Amendment of the rules relating to Dharmadarsis.

Mr. A. Anniah Pandit, Mysore District Board.

Summary of discussion—The existing rule relating to Dharmadarsis, viz., "that the Amildar may attend when necessary" may be altered into, "the Amildar or in his absence the Sheristadar must attend the meeting," have the proceedings of the meeting written out by the Parpattegar of the institution or the Muzrai Gumasta of the taluk and transmit the same to the Deputy Commissioner.

Reply of Government.—Noted. The amended rules may be given a trial, the clerical work being done by a competent temple servant.

SUBJECT No. 303.

Appointment of Dharmadarsis.

Mr. A. Anniah Pandit, Mysore District Board.

Summary of discussion.—Those who have provided for Sevas in temples may be afforded facilities for ascertaining that these are properly conducted.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

SUBJECT No. 304.

Annual examination of Muzrai property.

Mr. A. Anniah Pandit, Mysore District Board.

Summary of discussion.—The gold, silver and diamond jewels of the temples of Nanjangud, Chamrajnagar, Seringapatam, Melkote and other important institutions may be examined once a year by the respective Amildars or Deputy Amildars and the result of the examination reported to the Deputy Commissioner.

Reply of Government.—Recorded.

SUBJECT No. 305.

Muzrai Funds with the Government.

Mr. Singri Nanjappa, Tumkur District Board.

Summary of discussion.—The funds of the several Muzrai institutions under Government management are lying with the Government idle. This is a loss to the institutions concerned. The amounts may be kept in the Savings Bank in the names of the deities and the interest utilized for the affairs of the institutions. The cases of the Kalleswara temple in Tiptur town and the Kasivisvesvara temple in the Kolar town were mentioned in the course of the discussion.

Reply of Government.—This is being done as a rule. Individual cases, if represented, will be enquired into.
